

Hello Mr. McLarty,

Wanted to bring to your attention an incredible feat of love and athleticism.

The thumbnail is: Cool, sexagenarian Frenchman, teaches English; loves America; reads your book, The Memory of Running; was powerfully inspired by the book, and as a result biked from coast to coast (over 3000 miles!). He finished his incredible journey at Short Sands beach in Oregon on Friday. I spoke with him at a celebratory gathering of friends last evening.

I met Camille in Limoges, France 2 years ago. He is a college English teacher.

I was introduced to Camille by some old friends who wanted to show us their friends (Camille) 500 year old castle. It was unbelievable. And so is he.

This was shot from his 100 foot Sentry Tower.

You would be humbled by his warm praises of you and your book. He purchased many, many copies and gave them to people he met while crossing America.

He is a very sweet man, humble and astute; speaks very good English and tracks well. Here is a link to his US blog: <http://camilleus.over-blog.fr/> (French w/ no translator)

He will be in Portland until tomorrow, Sunday June 28 then back to France. A telephone number at which he may be reached today and tomorrow is 503-232-5696

I know that he would love to know that you appreciate the connection of spirit and heart.

His email is <zambeaux.correze@wanadoo.fr>

I am equally certain that you would have a lovely castle to call home for a stay if you are in his neighborhood in France.

Thank you all for the great work you do and thank you for your time in reading this, sincerely,

Bill
